Ride-Along vacationing

Mrs. Betty Root, Foothill Council PTA coordinator of the Upland Police Ride-Along program has announced the program has been suspended for the remaining summer months. Students who signed up for the program and haven't had a chance to ride-along will have first priority in September when the program starts again, Mrs. Root said.

Tailwaggers contribute

Upland's dog population took advantage of the Police Department sponsored rabies-dog licensing clinic held last week. A total of 573 animals were processed during the three-day clinic and $1,475 in license fees were paid.

Disposal site hours

Because of public demand, the county Board of Supervisors has authorized three county disposal sites, including the one in Ontario, to remain open each Sunday from 8 a.m. until 5 p.m.

The Ontario site is located on Milliken Avenue north of Highway 60 (Mission Boulevard). The other two sites now open all day each Sunday are in North San Bernardino and Fontana.

The sites previously had been operated on Sunday from 1 to 5 p.m., but the Board of Supervisors okayed the longer hours "because of the high traffic count on Sunday afternoons."

Public hearing for budget

A publication budget of $4,097,000 for the 1970-71 school year was approved unanimously by the Upland School District Board of Trustees at a regular meeting.

This budget will be published the last week of this month. A public hearing on the final budget will be held at 7:30 p.m. Aug. 4 in the district board room.

The publication budget, described as "minimal," is based on the previously adopted tentative budget which included reductions of $174,000 - reductions effected to produce a strict economy budget.

Substation begun by Edison Co.

There's a "power-ful" lot of activity going on now at the southeast corner of 16th Street and Campus Avenue.

Officials of the city, Chamber of Commerce and Southern California Edison Co. turned out for a ground-breaking ceremony there last week to signal the construction start of SCE's new Padua substation. The station will occupy a 30-acre site.

Participating in the ceremonies were Mayor George Gibson, Robert Sherwood, President, Upland Chamber of Commerce, Bill Rugg, Vice President of the Chamber; George Crum, Edison's new Central Division Manager; and Randy Bond, Edison's Upland Manager.

Bond noted that initial development of Padua Substation will represent an investment of approximately $4 million. Property taxes from the facility will amount to about $100,000 annually and the new facility will not require any increase in the level of municipal services.

The substation is scheduled to go into operation by July, 1971. "Exterior design of Padua Substation by famed industrial designer Henry Dreyfuss Associates will feature several innovations in substation design," Bond said.

"The interior of the site is being lowered so that facilities installed on foundations below street level will produce a low profile effect. An undulating berm or mound of earth up to 6' high will surround the station on three sides.

"The station will be fully landscaped with fast growing trees and shrubs," he said.

He noted that a 10-foot-high curved linear wall, creating a serpentine effect, will be built on top of the berm.

Dramatic new Dreyfuss-designed "arch" towers will be installed for the first time in Southern California in conjunction with the construction of the station.

Just getting started

Manning the shovels at the SCE Padua Substation site, 16th Street and Campus Avenue are Councilman A. M. Hawkins, Randy Bond, SCE Upland manager, and Mayor George Gibson.

The groundbreaking ceremonies were held last week at the Campus Avenue site.

College approves publication budget

A Chaffey College budget of $5,734,290 for 1970-71 has been endorsed for publication by the Board of Trustees.

The public hearing on the budget will be at 7:30 p.m., Aug. 6. The fiscal package for the academic year exceeds the last budget by $251,696 and shows a .5829 tax rate per $100 of assessed valuation. This is about a third of a cent more than the previous year's tax rate.

Upland dentist Merle K. Cox was continued as chairman of the board for his second term in that office. Dr. Cox has been a Chaffey College trustee since 1965.

Other officers named at the annual election were George W. Vinnege, vice chairman, and Clarence H. Saunders, clerk. Another trustee, Mrs. Georgia Mellon of Upland, was appointed as a representative to vote in the election of members of the San Bernardino County Committee on School District Organization.

The board awarded a total of $38,902.66 in contracts for the equipment and completion of a microbiology laboratory by Sept. 1.

These contracts went to Kewaunee Technical Furniture Company, Newport, for furniture ($18,115); Los Angeles Scientific Instrument Company, Inc., 18 microscopes ($11,505.66), and American Sterilizer Company, North Hollywood, one sterilizer ($9,282).

A contract of $13,247 to supply and install an electronic piano laboratory was granted to Van Landingham's, Montclair.

In other action, the board:

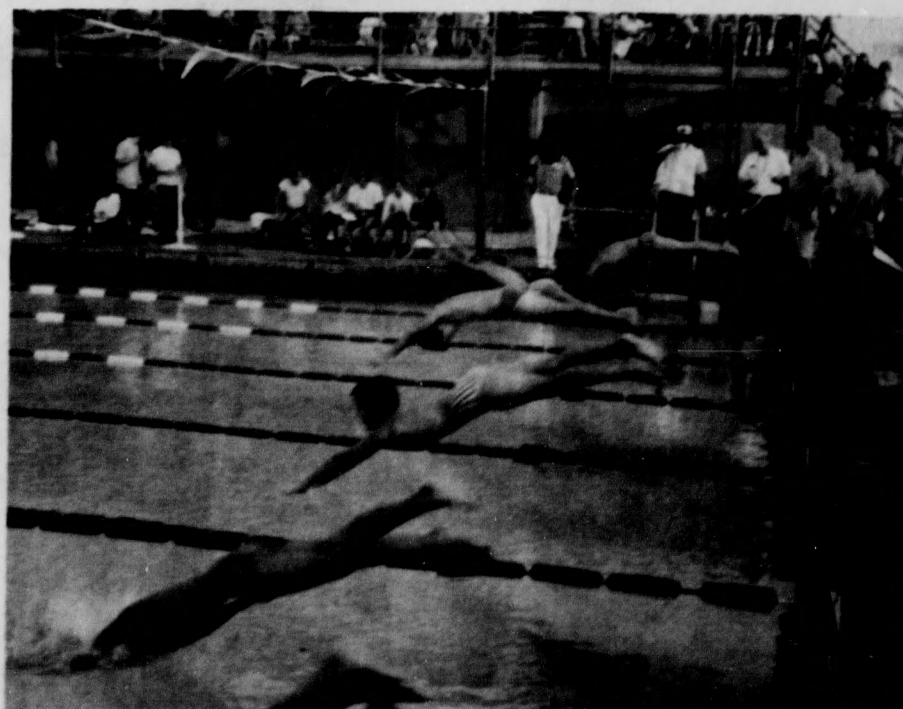

---Named the gymnasium here the Earl ("Si") Sicosky Gymnasium as a tribute to the devoted service of the late Chaffey College sports trainer. The move was in response to petitions from the community and the campus.

---Voted to change the legal designation of the college from Chaffey Union Junior College District to Chaffey Community College District.

The change is in line with the philosophy of the Chancellor's Office of the Community Colleges of California.

---Acknowledged gifts to the college from Hal Burbish, retired Upland architect (architectural files); Frank Hitchcock, Bakersfield (geological maps); and Dr. Elizabeth Hutchison, Encino (oil painting, "Fiesta").

---Scheduled regular sessions of the trustees for the third Tuesday of each month except for the budget hearing in August. Board meetings start at 7:30 p.m.

Great way to meet for a meet

The water and weather both were fine for this year's annual Upland Kiwanis Swim Meet held at the Upland High School Plunge, where youngsters splashed their way to fun and awards. At left, Rod Anderson, chairman of the swim meet, explains the rules to some of the boys. They're off and swimming in the center picture, and an estimated 300 persons showed up to watch the Upland Kiwanis Club event, the 13th of a series. This year's meet included 32 events for youngsters up to age 14. In photo at right, Alexander McLeish, standing, who served as co-chairman of the meet, assists Anderson in handing out awards to four of the young swimmers. For meet results, see story on sports page inside.

Church conference

Bishop Arthur M. Climenhaga, George Gibson and Dr. Owen H. Alderfer confer during recess in Centennial General Conference of the Brethren in Christ Church held in Upland. Dr. Climenhaga of Upland served as host bishop for the Pacific Conference.

Couple wins trip to Orient

An Upland couple, Mr. and Mrs. Chester Ray Heisey Jr., are looking forward to their trip to the Orient.

As grand prize winners in a contest sponsored by Security Pacific National Bank, the couple will be treated to a two-week tour, including a visit to Expo '70 in Osaka, Japan.

The contest was Security Bank's Master Charge Charter Club Sweepstakes.

Announcement of the grand prize culminated a six-week Master Charge campaign during which 140 prizes were awarded by Security Pacific Bank.

Winners were selected on the basis of the number appearing on the contestants' Security Pacific National Bank Master Charge Card.

"We were completely flabbergasted when we received the telegram notifying us that we had won the grand prize trip to Osaka, Japan, and we didn't really believe that this could have happened to us until the Bank called to confirm it," Heisey said.

Since Heisey conducts his banking at Security Pacific National Bank in Upland and has a Master Charge/Ready Reserve Account, his name automatically was entered in the Sweepstakes.

A resident of Upland since childhood, Heisey is no stranger to traveling. In 1962 he was offered a position as treasurer of the Brethren Christ Church in Rhodesia, Africa, and he and his wife spent several years there, traveling when they had the opportunity.

Heisey is currently the controller for Mount San Antonio Gardens. Mrs. Heisey is a registered nurse at the Pomona Valley Community Hospital. They have two children, Dean, 5-years-old, and Beth, 11 months.

Just 56¢ a week more puts you in touch with the future.

For an average of only 56¢ a week more in utility bills, you can have the comfort of an all-electric Medallion Home. Convenient living at your fingertips. Just as it will be in the future.

The cost of electricity for the average all-electric Medallion Home is only 56¢ a week more than the cost of both gas and electricity for the typical home using gas. This was established in a survey of more than 8,000 homes. Bills were typical of a family of four living in a 3-bedroom home. Half the homes surveyed were all-electric Medallion Homes, where everything was run by electricity - no gas. Electric cooking. Electric heating. Electric water heaters.

The other half of the homes surveyed used gas. Here are the findings:

	ALL-ELECTRIC HOMES	GAS HOMES
Average Weekly Cost of Electricity	$5.44	$2.61
Average Weekly Cost of Gas	0-	2.27
Total Weekly Cost - Gas and Electricity	$5.44	$4.88
Extra Weekly Cost of All-Electric Homes	.56

Wouldn't you prefer a clean, cool, flameless electric kitchen? A quiet, clean, space-saving electric water heater? Flameless electric heating with room-by-room temperature controls? An all-electric Medallion Home has them - plus built-in provisions for the all-electric future.

For the good clean life - live electrically. It's more than worth the 56¢ a week.

State news

Open credit files

San Bernardino County Assemblyman Jerry Lewis is sponsoring legislation which would guarantee to at least thirteen million Californians the right to review files which consumer credit organizations currently maintain concerning their personal financial histories.

The bill would require credit reporting agencies to provide an individual with copies of all reports prepared on his finances, together with the sources from which the information was gathered, and the names of creditors to which the information has been furnished within the previous six months.

If the subject of such a report disputed the information contained because it was either inaccurate or incomplete, the credit agency would be required to re-investigate and either confirm or correct the report.

If the new investigation did not resolve the dispute, the applicant could file a brief statement to that effect with the credit reporting agency. Any reference to those facts in any subsequent report by the agency would be required to clearly note that they were disputed by the applicant and provide either the applicant's statement of the dispute, or a clear and accurate summary of it.

"Banks, loan companies and retailers depend on these credit histories in making decisions regarding extension of credit, and more than fifteen million such individual reports are sent to credit grantors in California each year," Lewis said.

Lewis noted that similar legislation had been introduced, but so far had failed to pass, in Congress, adding, "I see no reason for the State Legislature to sit back and wait for Washington to act. We have a problem here in California, and we should move to deal with it now."

Senior citizen poetry contest

VICTORVILLE -- One of the highlights of Senior Citizens Day at the 1970 San Bernardino County Fair, Aug. 27 will be the annual poetry contest for senior citizens.

Rules for the contest: Theme for the poems will be "A Tribute to Early California and San Bernardino County". Contest poems should be submitted in triplicate without the name of the writer.

With each copy of a poem, the writer should submit a sealed envelope containing the writer's name, address and first line of the original poem.

The first line of the poem should also be written on the outside of the sealed envelope.

Winning entries will be selected by a panel of impartial judges whose decision will be final.

A trophy for the best poem of not more than 23 lines will be awarded to a senior poet on Senior Citizens Day. Other awards will be given.

All poems remain the property of their authors.

No poem will be returned, nor correspondence entered into concerning submission of any entry.

Bob Erickson

Montclair High School Principal Bob Erickson spent last week in Boulder, Colorado attending the 17th National Invitational Senior High School Principals Conference.

Twenty-eight high school administrators from 12 states attended the week long conference, which is sponsored by the Colorado University School of Education.

Erickson and the other administrators discussed common problems such as flexible scheduling, individualized instruction, pupil and teacher militancy, the drug problems in high schools and the role of the principal in negotiations.

Holiday skaters champions

The Montclair Holiday skating Club, whose headquarters are at the Holiday Roller Rink at 9191 Central Ave., has returned with 14 champions from the South West Pacific Coast Regional Roller Skating Championships.

These young skaters are now eligible for participation in the North American Roller Skating Championships scheduled to start August 2 in Lincoln, Nebraska.

Their instructor and trainer Tom Panno says the chances look good for a few national titles to come to some of the Montclair skaters.

The Holiday Skating Club is an amateur club affiliated with the Roller Skating Rink Operators Association under the guidance of the Amateur Athletic Association.

Those successful in the nationals will become eligible for Olympic competition. The South West competition they just finished is the largest roller skating championship of this type in the world.

It is held in the Bakersfield Municipal Auditorium because no rink on the Pacific coast is large enough to accommodate the 3,000 to 4,000 spectators the event draws annually.

Those youngsters who will be going on to compete in the nationals are:

Heldi Tyson, 7 years old, first place in the girls juvenile B freestyle; Leah Norris, 7 years old, second place juvenile B girls freestyle; Jo Ann Brown, 7 years old, third place juvenile B girls freestyle;

Doug Houde, 7 years old, first place juvenile B boys freestyle; Julie Miller, 11 years old, third place, juvenile girls freestyle; Carol Waddington, 10 years old, third place juvenile girls figures; Ed Bunner, second place intermediate men's freestyle, second place intermediate men's figures and second place at the State World try-outs;

Next placement tests for new fulltime students will be on Aug. 1, Aug. 12 and Aug. 22.

Ron Scotton, first place senior mens freestyle; Robin Miller and Jim Bray, both 8 years old, first place juvenile pairs; Pam Stewart and Mike Faulkner 13 and 14 years old, third place junior pairs and Carol and Louie Faulkner, 13 and 16 years old, second place novice pairs.

There are 71 more women than men students in this summer's attendance total, or 981 coeds as opposed to 910 males.

Last summer, the statistics showed an opposite balance with an enrollment of 893 men and 827 women.

Chaffey college adopts its 1970-71 publication budget

A Chaffey College budget of $5,734,290 for 1970-1971 was Tuesday endorsed for publication by the Board of Trustees.

The public hearing on the budget will be at 7:30 p.m., Aug. 6.

The fiscal package for the academic year exceeds the last budget by $251,696 and shows a .5829 tax rate per $100 of assessed valuation. This is about a third of a cent more than the previous year's tax rate.

Upland dentist Merle K. Cox was continued as chairman of the board for his second term in that office. Dr. Cox has been a trustee here since 1965.

Other officers named at the annual election were Ontarios George W. Vinnege, vice chairman, and Clarence H. Saunders, clerk.

Another trustee, Mrs. Georgia Mellon, of Upland, was appointed as a representative to vote in the election of members of the San Bernardino County Committee on School District Organization.

The board awarded a total of $38,902.66 in contracts for the equipment and completion of a microbiology laboratory by Sept. 1.

These contracts went to Kewaunee Technical Furniture Company, Newport, for furniture ($18,115); Los Angeles Scientific Instrument Company, Inc., 18 microscopes ($11,505.66), and American Sterilizer Company, North Hollywood, one sterilizer ($9,282).

A contract of $13,247 to supply and install and electronic paino laboratory was granted to Van Landingham's Montclair.

In other action, the board:

--Named the gymnasium here the Earl ("SI") Sisco Gymnasium as a tribute to the devoted service of the late Chaffey College sports trainer. The move was in response to petitions from the community on the campus.

Voted to change the legal designation of the college from Chaffey Junior College District to Chaffey Community College District. The change is in line with the philosophy of the Chancellor's Office of the Community Colleges of California.

Acknowledged gifts to the college from Hal Purbish, retired Upland architect (architectural files); Frank Hitchcock, Bakersfield (geological maps); and Dr. Elizabeth Hutchison, Encino (oil painting, "Fiesta"). Scheduled regular sessions of the trustees for the third Tuesday of each month except for the budget hearing in August. Board meetings start at 7:30 p.m.

Upland Savings pays the maximum interest on insured savings. No other insured financial institution in America can offer you higher interest or more insurance, because all insured financial institutions' interest and insurance are regulated by governmental regulations.

Upland Savings is a part of America's insured savings system whose total assets exceed $150,000,000,000.00 (150 billion dollars) and where, throughout America, over 44,000,000 (44 million) savers save. As a savings counselor, we suggest you look at more than the stated rate of yield of investments. If you had needed to "cash-in" your investment before maturity this past year, you would sustain substantial losses. In 1969 only Upland Savings would have returned your investment plus high earnings.

What county officials are doing about war on smog

By RUBEN S. AYALA
Chairman, San Bernardino County Board of Supervisors

Some of us tend to view air pollution as a purely local matter, when in fact it is a world-wide problem. Some of the more pessimistic scientists believe that it is already too late to start a program of action.

However, state, county, and local officials disagree with this philosophy and are working diligently towards remedial action we, as representatives of the people living under these conditions, can take to correct this disastrous condition.

This problem has been most severe in the Los Angeles area because of a temperature inversion condition which creates a ceiling or "lid" of warm air over ground-level air which holds and compresses to the ground pollutant from the industry and the millions of automobiles. This is the smog that irritates the eyes, stings the nose, and obscures the visibility during most of the year.

Eighty per cent or more of the smog that fills our valley and which drifts up Cajon Pass to Victorville and beyond; ninety per cent or more of the smog that fills our valley and which also drifts through San Geronimo Pass to Palm Springs and beyond, originates in the Los Angeles Basin and is delivered to us by the prevailing westerly air currents.

All of us in the San Bernardino area have observed for the past two or three years that our smog problem has gotten progressively worse. It is estimated that 87% of the smog in Los Angeles is caused by the internal combustion engine. The auto industry and the oil industry are therefore indirectly the heaviest contributors to air pollution because of the automobile.

Under the Federal Law, California may not enforce motor vehicle emission control for new cars unless the Secretary of Health, Education and Welfare of the United States waives the Federal preemption in this field. The procedure for obtaining such waivers is complicated and time-consuming.

It involves a separate request for waiver and a formal hearing adopted by the Federal Government. Unless this procedure is simplified, either administratively in the Department of Health, Education and Welfare, or by change in the Federal Law, the State of California will continually be in the process of seeking these waivers.

The job of cleaning up auto-caused exhaust pollution is apparently going to be left up to the auto industry, as far as the Federal Government is concerned. Our message to Detroit is that the smog situation in California is past the toleration point and that auto engines, as chief factors in producing smog, must be so designed as to drastically reduce their pollution potential.

The San Bernardino County Board of Supervisors has adopted the rules and regulations of the Los Angeles County Air Pollution Control District, which are the strictest in the nation, effective July 1, 1970.

The County Board also has hired H. A. Price and Associates firm to review all air pollution ordinances and procedures to further implement the Los Angeles County Rules. H. A. Price and Associates have been informed by the Board of Supervisors that at the conclusion of their study, they will be expected to spell out any and all recommendations to the Board, without regard of whom it may involve. It is our sincere hope that San Bernardino County will serve as a model for the rest of the nation in the area of air pollution control.

We have used 18 county cars in conjunction with Scott Research laboratories to test various types of low smog emitting gases. This program is still continuing and the new additive F-310 is one of the special gases that was tested.

We will be testing six vehicles run on natural gas in a pilot program with the Southern California Gas Company. This is a scoop, because the official announcement won't be made until the first week in May. The County may also participate in another pilot program using liquid propane gas.

Although agricultural burning is less than 3/10 of 1% of the problem, this practice will be eliminated unless permission is received by the Air Pollution Control District. Permission will only be granted on days that this burning will not add to a bad smog condition.

Burning dumpsites will be eliminated entirely in the valley portion of the County, effective July 1, 1970.

Reactivated the Air Pollution Control Hearing Board, which is a group of technical and legal people who investigate and decide on granting or not granting a variance to temporarily deviate from some section of the ordinance. This is usually done for testing or experimental purposes.

Continually updating the Air Pollution Control District with better and improved administrative and technical innovations. There is a progressive program to update all equipment as well as acquiring new knowledge about methods of pollution control.

Under Federal Law, effective July 1, 1970, the Air Pollution Control District will be enforcing noise and air pollution controls emitting from aircraft. As a matter of fact, Supervisor Daniel D. Mikesell, who is a Board member from the Upland-Ontario area, is on the National Noise Abatement Committee representing County Government.

If we were to shut down all industry, big or small, in order to help remove air pollutants in our County, we certainly would make some gains in this problem, but would not entirely solve it. The fact is that during the period that the Kaiser Steel plant personnel were on strike, and the plant was shut down, our County experienced the worst smoggy days on record.

Also, if we demanded all industry not in complete compliance without ordinance to close their doors, an additional 20,000 to 25,000 people in our County would be looking for new jobs and some, I am sure, would no doubt find their way into our already overburdened welfare rolls.

It is my belief that when we speak of environmental and ecological amelioration, we are not only referring to the air we breathe or the water we drink, but also to the social and economical environment of an area.

Last month, Kaiser Steel Industry announced they had allocated 2.6 million dollars to a new research program for their sinter plant, their largest problem to date in the area of emissions of consequence and the representatives of Kaiser Steel feel that this is a giant step toward the solution to any participation they may have had in air pollution.

Now, what can you do to help?

Learn as much as possible about Smog -- its sources, effects and control methods.

Get your club, organization and friends interested by discussing air pollution, holding meetings on air pollution control, and by having neighborhood schools include environmental pollution as part of their curricula on health or science.

Keep your automobile properly maintained and serviced. This means regular checkups of your vehicle's smog control equipment and ignition and carburetion components.

Support legislation for smog control and the programs of your air pollution control districts.

The San Bernardino County Board of Supervisors is constantly striving to learn and accomplish more in our daily fight against all types of pollution and will continue to do so, but we need the help of each and every citizen, individually, to bring us closer to a complete and final solution to this overwhelming problem facing all of us today and the lives of our future generations.

Tourist brochures available

The San Bernardino County Economic Development Department has advised all Chambers of Commerce and similar organizations in the county, that it will soon reorder supplies of most of its tourist brochures and asked for recommendations for changes, omissions or additions to the folders.

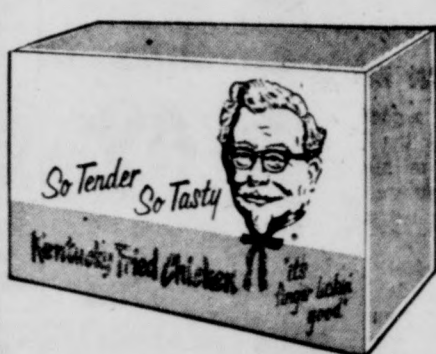

The brochures included are the four "Pleasin' any Season" pamphlets, including the golf, water including the Golf, Water Sports, Skiing and Pleasin' any Season for Any Reason brochures, the last of which describes all of the county's major tourist attractions. The proposed re-publication also includes the San Bernardino County Valley Safari and High Desert Safari brochures.

Economic Development Department Director Arthur B. Groos stated that recommendations should arrive in his office as soon as possible, but no later than July 30. They should be addressed to: Publicity and Promotions Coordinator, Economic Development Department, San Bernardino County, 175 West Fifth Street, San Bernardino, Cal., 92401.

Old Missions celebration

Breaking all attendance records of their tours of the Old Missions of California, an internationally renowned troupe of full-blooded Indian dancers from the Arizona desert arrive at Old Mission Santa Barbara on Friday, July 24, for five days of eye-catching, pulsating tribal dances.

Photographers may shoot as many pictures as they like. Admission is free to all.

The famed Apache, Navajo, Papago and Pima Indian dancers will perform five times daily - at 10:30 a.m., 12 noon, 1:30, 3:00 and 4:30 p.m., ending Tuesday, July 28. Although their movements seem frenzied and spontaneous, all steps, gestures and contortions are the result of long years of precise training. They faithfully duplicate dances the Indians performed before the Spanish conquistadores stormed the old southwest.

Many spectators readily sense the meanings of the dances without explanation. The fiercely defiant War Dance that aroused the Apaches of old still has the power to quicken the pulse of the onlooker today.

The Horsetail Dance suggests the unconquered prancing of wild horses.

The Eagle Dance conjures up visions of the mighty Thunderbird flapping its great dark wings against the bright blue desert sky.

The Hoop Dance dramatizes the grace and prowess of a young brave. Likewise, Snake, Rain, Feather, Devil, Buffalo, Victory and Farewell Dances are often recognized without reference to the program.

Costumes are vivid yellows, reds and blues, like the blazing sun and multi-hued rocks and flowers of the Indians' desert home.

Wherever they go, the dancers are described as spellbinders. They win ovations from crowds at world fairs, summer festivals and conventions, just as they did when touring Europe where Pope John XXIII was among their enthusiastic fans. Presidents Eisenhower and Kennedy also applauded them.

The public is invited to be where the action is at Old Mission Santa Barbara, July 24 through July 28.

The fierce Apache War Dance done by Indian warriors of the past before going into battle, conditioning them for the fight. It is one of 11 spectacular, authentic tribal dances to be performed by an internationally famed dance troupe of Apache, Navajo, Papago and Pima Indians at Old Mission Santa Barbara, five times daily from Friday, July 24, through Tuesday July 28, free to the public. All are invited.

Retail grocers studying here

The men will take part in discussions dealing with chain store organizations and development, store operation analysis, merchandising to increase profit, inventory control, quality meat control, distribution of employee time, coordination and communication between departments, and duties and responsibilities common to employee positions.

Scripps prof writes of literary terms

Richard Armour, Professor Emeritus of English at Scripps College in Claremont, has written two articles for the new Dictionary of World Literary Terms.

Dr. Armour's contributions are on light verse and on the form of parody and satire known as the spoof. He traces these forms from the literature of ancient Greece to contemporary literature in Europe and America, with examples and bibliography.

Scholars and writers in the U. S. and England have contributed to the new dictionary.

Dr. Armour has written 40 books, mainly satirical, and more than 6,000 pieces of prose and verse for U. S. and British publications.

Sports, surrealism featured now at Pomona public library

Sports and surrealism share the main and lower galleries of the Pomona Public Library this month.

The world of sports as seen through the camera of free lance photographer Darryl D. Norenberg is appearing in the main gallery.

Photographs dealing with a wide range of subjects including auto racing, bullfighting, baseball, track, basketball, tennis, football, golf and go-cart racing are being exhibited by this local artist.

Several autographed photographs of sports celebrities are also included in Norenberg's exhibit.

A former chief photographer with the Progress-Bulletin, Norenberg served as an industrial photographer with Interstate Electronics Corp. and General Dynamics, a magazine photographer for a leading consumer automotive magazine and several special interest publications, and the photographic director for the L. M. Cox Manufacturing Company before turning to full-time free lance photography last year.

A graduate of the New York Institute of Photography and Chaffey College, Norenberg is a member of the California Press Photographers Association, the Society of Magazine Photographers and the Greater Los Angeles Press Club.

He and his wife and daughter reside at 305 E. McKinley Ave., Pomona. Surrealistic pen-and-ink drawings by 19-year-old James K. Duke are appearing in the library's lower gallery.

A victim of the "drug scene," Duke is currently a patient at Pomona's Olive Medical Center, a care and rehabilitation center for people suffering from light mental and emotional disorders.

Concerning his experiences with drugs and their connection with his art, Duke explains, "My art reflects my life. I draw images that are dream-like in nature. The central theme of Duke's Library exhibit is "Drawings From A Room," which includes more than 40 very detailed ink drawings done from his room while a patient at the Medical Center.

Cooperating with Duke in bringing his exhibit to the library is Mrs. Larry Mullins, Fine Arts Chairman of the Pomona Junior Women's Club. Both exhibits will be on display in the library throughout the month of July.

Silver gavel

Don M. Muchmore, left, outgoing president of the California Museum Foundation, support organization for the California Museum of Science and Industry, Los Angeles, receives silver gavel as a tribute to his two year's service to the museum from J. Howard Edgerton, Board chairman of the Foundation, and from his wife, Virginia Muchmore.

Dinner dance in honor of Myrlie Evers

Friends of Myrlie Evers, Democratic candidate for Congress in the 24th District, are sponsoring a dinner dance at Pomona Valley Inn, Saturday, July 25, 7 p.m. Two bands will be featured, including Leon Hayward at the organ along with his musical group, plus Bob Gaynor, piano virtuoso and vocalist. Also Julie Carroll will perform as vocalist. A cocktail hour will precede dinner and there will be poolside entertainment.

The public is invited. For further information call Mrs. Jackie Flowers at 593-7070 or 621-4733.

Real estate investment trust

HYBRID - THE REAL ESTATE INVESTMENT TRUST

A form of real estate investment that has only been used for the last 10 years or so is the real estate investment trust, according to Eugene Bello, President of the Ontario - Upland - Chino Board of Realtors.

Its beginnings date back considerably further than that, he said, but in 1960 Public Law 86-779 allowed their income to be disbursed to members without tax. Before then, they had been taxed as a corporation, he noted.

The effect of the trust, then, is similar to any other direct investment in real estate. As with an apartment or an office building, the income becomes taxable when the individual recipient reports it, he pointed out. Even though the real estate investment trust is now taxed as a corporation, with certain exceptions, it does come under the jurisdiction of the Corporations Commissioner, he added.

Mr. Bello said the principal requirements of a trust are that it have at least 100 member investors, that 75% of its gross income must be from real estate investments, that 90% of its income be from investments, and that it must hold property primarily for sale to customers in the ordinary course of business.

There are more technical requirements, he said, among them that no five persons or fewer may hold more than 50% of the beneficial interest, and that each share carry with it an equivalent vote in determining trust policy. Others are defined in the federal law, Securities Exchange Commission regulations, Internal Revenue Service rulings, and state regulations.

The Board president outlined the main advantage of a real estate investment trust as, "it allows its investors to share in widely diversified real estate holdings they could not otherwise afford. It allows experts in real estate, legal matters, and financing to concentrate their knowledge to produce investment income."

"There is a certain safety factor in such investments which appeals to some investors. At the same time, as a Realtor, I see disadvantages," he said.

"As in most group ventures, the real estate investment trust is quite impersonal. Few shareholders are directly involved in selecting properties, operating them and disposing of them. It also is a great leveler. It's like investing in the stock market, where everyone participating in that stock's fortunes is dependent on the expertise of the management," Mr. Bello said.

The principal difference is that the stock market offers shares in a corporation, the real estate investment trust deals in real estate and mortgages exclusively," he said.

Many investors prefer the opportunity and personal involvement of owning apartments, business buildings, franchise locations, and the like. Even a real estate syndicate gets him closer to the action. Syndicates must have less than 100 investors, often in practice has only 10 or less with a real estate expert guiding purchases and management, then selling after a limited time, Mr. Bello said.

Investment in real estate can take many forms. All of them have the excitement of dealing in the most fundamental commodity we have—the use of the land itself, President Bello said.

How it is

U. S. Milk output in 1970 is expected to change little from the 116.2 billion pounds produced in 1969. As 1970 began, 13.9 million cows and heifers two years and older were reported on farms 2 per cent less than a year earlier. Prices received by farmers for all milk average 5 per cent above a year earlier for January and February, and farm marketings of milk and cream may be a above 1969 levels, with higher prices to push farmer's gross cash receipts this year to a new high, topping the $6.1 billion mark of 1969.

Isolationism is paying off for West Germany World wide photos at LA County fair exhibit

By DONALD W. REYNOLDS
Publisher,
Bonita Publishing Co.

FRANKFURT, Germany -- Isolationism is supposedly a "dirty word", but if there was ever a conclusive argument in favor of minding your own business, this financial headquarters of West Germany certainly provides it.

More than seventy percent destroyed by Allied bombers in the second world war, today Frankfurt, the birthplace of the Rothschild banking combine, is a gigantic, successful urban renewal project.

Since the end of the war in 1945 West Germany has experienced tremendous economic growth. It is one of the world's top industrial nations. With an estimated twenty Soviet divisions stationed in East Germany, the Federal Republic had the choice of accepting the division of the country and getting about the business of reconstruction or attempting to force reunification.

Wisely the West Germans adopted the policy of first things first, and while articulately favoring a united Germany, accepted the situation. Germany is a Central European nation composed of numerous states having a common language and traditions. Today almost fifty thousand square miles with 17 million people is under Soviet control as the German Democratic Republic.

Certainly West Germany has been assisted by the United States and its Allies in a rebuilding program, and as in the U.S. there are the professional bleeding hearts that advocate social reform rather than financial security. Fortunately for the country, the breast beaters haven't had a whole lot to say about the government.

After having been disastrously defeated in two global experiments during a thirty year period, the average German has learned his lesson -- stay out of the Koreans, the Central and South American military adventures and most of all, the Soviet adjoining states of Hungary, Poland and Czechoslovakia. The German empire reached its peak before World War I in 1914.

At that time the homeland comprised more than 200,000 square miles plus world wide colonies. Today there are sixty million Germans occupying 95,000 square miles and doing very well, thank you.

In the face of such an obvious example, Vietnam doesn't make such a lot of sense, does it?

Paint Your Can
You can turn a garbage container from an eyesore to an eye-pleaser. Scrub out the can, inside and out, then coat the metal with a primer especially designed for galvanized steel. Paint the can the same color as your house with two coats of exterior enamel.

Entries from throughout the world will be on display at the 14th Annual International Exhibition of Photography to be held in Pomona during the 1970 edition of the Los Angeles County Fair, Sept. 18 through Oct. 4.

Entries will be divided into four divisions: Pictorial Color Slides, Nature Color Slides, and Color Prints. There will be special judging for Monochrome Prints with a maximum of four prints in each division.

In the Pictorial Color Slide division, entries will be grouped as either Contemporary or General with the decision remaining up to the entrant as to which category he wishes his slides to be entered. In this section two Gold Medals will be awarded by the Photographic Society of America (PSA). The first will be for the "Best Slide of the Show" and the second for the "Best Contemporary Slide of the Show".

The Nature Color Division will be open to slides of all forms including such facets of nature as archeology, botany, geology, and zoology. Human elements should be unobtrusive and enhance the nature story. In this division titles for each slide are recommended. Two Sterling Medals, awarded by the PSA will be given for the slide of the judges choice and for the "Best Wildlife".

Because of the large number of color prints expected, the division will be divided by last names. Exhibitors with names A through L will have their work on display Sept. 18 through Sept. 26 and exhibitors with names beginning with M and running through Z will be showing their work Sept. 27 through Oct. 4.

Deadline for entries in both Color Nature Slides and Color Pictorial Slides is Sept. 3 with Color Prints due August 27.

From the library

Two hundred years ago, on December 16, 1770, Leopold van Beethoven was born in Bonn, Germany. Two hundred years later one leading journalist said, "Let's declare a moratorium on his works in 1970, so we can come to him fresh in 1971."

It is an interesting idea, but one not likely to be recommended by the San Bernardino County Library and its branches.

In their various record collections in 12 branches having records are practically all of Beethoven's major and minor compositions, many of them in multiple copies to give patrons the flavor of different conductors or different artists.

Reference has been made to the major and minor works of Beethoven. We can roughly place the major works in Beethoven's latter years, between 1818 and his death in 1827. These "major" works include the monumental Choral Symphony No. 9, the exalting Missa Solemnis, the last sonatas, the last quartets.

The amazing thing about Beethoven is the fact that this period coincides with the beginning of his deafness.

In fact, when Beethoven conducted his Ninth Symphony for the first time in Vienna, the audience applauded wildly during the second movement, drowning out the music, but Beethoven, totally deaf, was not aware of this, and one of the soloists had to gently turn him around at the end of the finale to acknowledge the applause.

The miracle of Beethoven's later life was that he could produce so much wonderful music which he could never hear played.

Records of the Ninth Symphony are represented in the County Library by Munch and the Boston Symphony, Ormandy and the Philadelphia Orchestra, Schmidt-Issersted and the Vienna Philharmonic, and Toscanini with the NBC Symphony. His other works are represented by Klemperer in the Missa Solemnis, Budapest Quartet in the later quartets, and many others.

It should not be forgotten that much of Beethoven's music was written during his early years, and many instances could be cited of his self-confidence, exuberance, and gaiety as shown in his music.

Listen to the surprise opening of the Fourth Piano Concerto, the playful humor of the Eighth Symphony, the delicious, natural, out-of-doors feeling of the Sixth Symphony (called appropriately Pastorale Symphony). These are all on records by various fine artists, conductors, and orchestras.

So no matter what your tastes, whether you like choral music, opera (Fidelio is considered greatest since Mozart), piano music, quartets, songs -- Beethoven composed them.

Whether you borrow records in 1970, or wait until 1980 or 1990 (will there still be records then?) you will always enjoy at least some of the music by a great man whose spirit will never die.

Track and field expert to be guest lecturer

Geoffrey Dyson, world famous track and field technician from England, will make a special appearance at Mt. San Antonio College Monday and Tuesday evenings, July 27 and 28 from 4:30 to 8:30 p.m.

Dyson will deliver a series of comprehensive lectures on track and field techniques. The College is one of three sites Coach Dyson has chosen for special appearances during his visit to California.

The dynamic lecturer has written several books on his subject, the most noted being Mechanics of Athletics, which has recently been praised by the coaching staff of UCLA as "... the most important and thorough piece of work ever done in the mechanics of track and field."

Don Ruh, MSAC track and field coach, and coordinator of the Track and Field Clinic, said the Clinic will be open to coaches and athletes alike, as well as track and field enthusiasts throughout the area.

"Anyone attending the two-day will leave entertained, enthused, and a great deal wiser in the area of track and field," Ruh said.

The Clinic will be held in the College's Little Theater. Registration is $5 per person, and may be paid on the opening evening of the Clinic, or by mail, addressed to the College, care of Dyson Clinic, Attn: Coach Don Ruh.

as selma sees it

Dear Selma:
I'm a night eater. Once I'm home from work, I eat constantly. What can I do?
Miss B. A.

Dear Miss B. A.:
You're singing my song! That's why Weight Watchers works for people like us. We have lists of legal "free" foods to snack on 24 hours a day and we take advantage of these foods. In addition, we have fruits and the famous Weight Watchers Malt to help us feel full. All of this leads to the success of re-educating our eating habits for the rest of our lives.

Dear Selma:
A friend of mine has lost 48 pounds with Weight Watchers and is constantly talking about all the food she eats, including DESSERTS!! Is she kidding me?
Mrs. V. J.

Dear Mrs. V. J.:
Your friend has lost her weight happily being able to include desserts in her foods. Here's a favorite for you to try.
STRAWBERRY SHORTCAKE

1/3 cup ricotta cheese
1 pkg. granulated artificial sweetener (or to taste)
1/4 teaspoon vanilla
1/2 cup strawberries (crush after measuring)
1 slice white bread
Mix together cheese, vanilla, sweetener. Spread on toasted bread. Top with crushed berries, which may be sweetened with artificial sweetener. Broil for a few minutes. Count as 1/2 lunch. ENJOY!!

Dear Selma:
I awake every morning resolving to go on a diet, but by 9 a.m., I've eaten a dozen cookies. What can I do?
Mrs. T. C.

Dear Mrs. T. C.:
If you are eating a dozen cookies at 9 a.m., I know you're attacking the left over cold mashed potatoes at 2 p.m. and eating ice cream and candy when everyone else is sleeping. If you must give in to these "empty calories", which are your "monsters", I strongly urge you to eat them standing nude in front of a full length mirror.

Questions to be answered in this column should be sent to Selma Rifkin, Weight Watchers, 3322 W. Beverly Blvd., Montebello. Persons desiring a personal reply should include a stamped, self-addressed envelope.

Taxpayers ask IRS

Q - I don't think the agent who examined my return was right in disallowing a lot of my deductions. Is there anyone else at IRS I can talk to about this?

A - You may request a district conference to discuss the disputed deductions. The way to do this is described on the notice you received explaining the proposed adjustments in your tax. The conference provides you with an independent review of the items in question since the person representing IRS at the conference is independent of the office that examined your return.

Q - My boss stopped taking social security tax from my pay. Why?

A - Employers are required to withhold social security taxes on the first $7,800 in wages paid during the calendar year to each employee. In your case, that requirement has evidently been met.

Q - My son is putting aside his earnings from a summer job to pay for college. Do I count these earnings when I figure his total support?

A - The earnings are included for support purposes in the year they are spent for that purpose. If he spends the money this year then they have to be taken into account in computing total support when you file your 1970 return.

To meet the support test, you must provide over one-half the cost of providing your son's food, shelter, clothing, medical and dental care. Educational expenses are also included.

Q - I'm selling my house and moving into a retirement community. Will I have to pay tax on the profit I made?

A - Any gain on the sale of property is usually taxable. However, you can postpone that tax on the sale of a personal residence if another is bought within a year before or after the sale at a price at least equal to the "adjusted sales price" of the old house.

If you are 65 before the date of the sale, you may avoid paying tax on the profits from a home sale altogether. To do this, the house must have been owned and used as your principal residence for five of the past eight years and the "adjusted sales price" be $20,000 or less. When the "adjusted sales price" is over $20,000, only a portion of the profit will be taxable.

Q - Has there been any rate change on the highway use tax?

A - No, it is still $3 per 1000 pounds or fraction thereof for trucks with a taxable gross weight of over 26,000 pounds.

Q - Is there any tax difference between alimony and child support payments?

A - Yes, alimony payments are taxable to the person who receives them and deductible by those who pay them. Child payments are neither taxable nor deductible, but should be counted in total support for determining who is entitled to claim the child as a dependent.

REDUCE NOW AND ENJOY SUMMER

THERE IS STILL TIME TO HAVE YOUR NEW PAT WALKER FIGURE FOR SUMMER AND VACATION. READ HOW WOMEN INTERNATIONALLY HAVE REDUCED QUICKLY, EASILY, EFFORTLESSLY WITH PAT WALKER FIGURE PERFECTION PROGRAM.

KAILUA - HUSBAND APPROVES SHAPLIER LOOK

I was horrified when I came home from a year in Europe with my husband to discover that all that lovely European food had caused me to weigh 154 pounds — and me with a 5'3" frame. For three months, I dieted desperately and lost only 5 pounds. Exercising was hopeless because I couldn't stick to it. I had seen the Pat Walker ads many times and knew that the treatments had helped others, so I talked my husband into letting me try it. At the end of only two weeks my husband and I were both impressed with what I had already lost. Since then, I have lost a total of 28½ inches and am still going down. I am very grateful to Pat Walker for giving me back my energy, my figure, and a happier, more hopeful outlook.

—Mrs. Susan P. Solheim, Kailua, Hawaii

KOGARAH, N.S.W. - REDUCES FROM SIZE OS TO SSW

My family had been telling me for some time that I was putting on weight. By buying a larger size in frocks I thought I could conceal my bulges. I finally realized how frumpy and heavy I had become. After a few weeks of regular treatments with Pat Walker the pounds started to melt away. It was so easy to lose, too — no dieting, no strenuous exercises. The treatments are so relaxing, it is a delightful, sure way to lose.

—Mrs. Gloria Nelson, Kogarah, N.S.W.

SANTA ANA - A TREAT, NOT A TREATMENT

It is important to my family and to me to keep up with today's fashion trends, but most of all, keeping in shape. Through the years I have tried reducing pills and gyms only to lose for a short time and return to my old weight. After reading Pat Walker advertisements, I was convinced this was the solution to my problem. I lost 36 inches and 23 pounds, along with the firming and toning. Not only do I look better, but I feel like a more vital person. To me it is a treat, not a treatment to go to a Pat Walker salon, where the atmosphere is elegant, cheerful and friendly. The results have been most satisfactory.

—Mrs. Evelyn Riggle, Santa Ana, California

NORTHRIDGE - PROBLEM AREAS REDUCED

Mrs. Froman said, "With the Pat Walker program pounds and inches have disappeared especially from areas where I had trouble reducing in the past." Mrs. Froman reduced 3½ inches from her bust, 5 inches from her underbust, 6¼ inches from her waist, 8½ inches from her abdomen, 7½ inches from her hips, 4 inches from each thigh and 3½ inches from each upper arm. Mrs. Froman reduced from 151¼ pound size 15 to 115 pound size 7.

—Mrs. S. Froman, Northridge, California

ORANGE - 26 POUNDS AND 44 INCHES REASON ENOUGH

Until a few years ago, weight had never been a serious threat to me. Then suddenly, almost without warning, those insidious pounds began manifesting themselves. I tried one diet program after another only to give up in despair. A little over a year ago, my daughter, a stockbroker in Santa Ana, pleaded with me to try the Pat Walker program. I agreed to make an appointment for the courtesy visit. Can you imagine my delight to be a perfect size 12 again after wearing a size 18? And, I am still going down. I feel healthier and happier than I have in years. I have lost 26½ pounds and have taken off 44 inches since beginning my program. I wish I knew how to tell other women who are as discouraged as I was that there is help. Try the Pat Walker program and you'll see for yourself.

—Mrs. Isabelle Olrich, Orange, California

SYDNEY - DOWN FROM SIZE W TO SSW AND ONE STONE, 27 INCHES

Planning a cruise is always exciting, but I was despondent with my figure when I began planning mine. I felt I needed to come down about a stone and had only a few months to reduce. I started with Pat Walker and have so far come down from size W to SSW and lost a stone and 27 inches. The treatments are so relaxing and I feel so invigorated after each visit. I would like to thank the Pat Walker staff also for the wonderful care and attention they gave me on each visit. I can honestly recommend anybody with figure problems to place themselves in Pat Walker's hands.

—Mrs. Mavis Pounceby, Sydney, Australia

GLENDAL - COULDN'T DO IT ALONE

I kept telling myself I could reduce, but finally realized I couldn't — not alone. I was 141 pounds, wearing a size 14 dress. I decided to go to Pat Walker's and have been so pleased and satisfied with the results, as I am down to a size 9 and still going down. Thank you Pat Walker for your concern for the women like myself who have a weight and figure problem.

—Mrs. Luanne Hart, Glendale, California

PASADENA - PROUD OF NEW LOOK

I had tried many ways to lose weight — I almost landed in the hospital. Being desperate, I figured I had nothing to lose but weight at Pat Walker's . . . and I did. It's so hard to express the feeling of despair, especially when you're young, with being overweight. Now that I am thin, I am so proud to go shopping and get into the petite sized dresses. It has changed the whole way I feel about myself — I'm really proud.

—Miss Marcia Ellsworth, Pasadena, California

LEISURE WORLD - FIGURE COMPARABLE TO 45 YEARS AGO

I read where "Pat Walker is out to reshape the world", so I decided to be included in her world. Some people seem to feel that at the retired age, it is too late to think of beauty or sometimes even health. I feel that since we must still hang around, why not look the best we can. I reduced from a size 18 to a size 12. If people would only realize that a little time and money and you can become a lovelier, livelier you and build health that gives you a sparkle and joy for living. It makes you stand a little taller with pride.

—Mrs. G. Reynolds, Rossmore Leisure World, Cal.

MONTCLAIR - FROM SIZE 52 TO A 14!

The most pleasant way to reduce which could be dreamed of . . . that's what I found at the Pat Walker Salon. I have gone from a size 52 to an unbelievable size 14! Although they kept accurate records, I really don't need to be shown the results. It's such fun to not be recognized by an old acquaintance and have to tell them who I am.

—Mrs. Rhodes, Montclair, California

PASADENA - THANKS FRIEND FOR REGAINED CONFIDENCE

For many years I had tried to lose weight, unsuccessfully. One day in a Pat Walker advertisement, I noticed that the girl featured in the photo was a friend of mine, whom I knew had a long-standing weight problem. I went to see her and was amazed at how great she looked. I figured that if Pat Walker could help my friend Nadine, she could help me. Only someone who has been overweight can understand the feeling of walking into a room knowing you look heavy. Since I began my program, I feel young again and have so much confidence. And most important, I am much slimmer and am still going down.

—Mrs. Christine House, Pasadena, California

TORRANCE - FROM SIZE 14 TO PERFECT SIZE 8

Mrs. Roscoe, with Pat Walker program, reduced 2 inches from her bust, 3 inches from her waist, 2½ inches from her abdomen, 3 inches from her hips and 3 inches from each thigh. Mrs. Roscoe reduced from a size 14 to a perfect size 8.

—Mrs. Elma Roscoe, Torrance, California

ORANGE - IT WORKS - 43½ INCHES AND 30 POUNDS WORTH!

After patiently tolerating my crash diets, calorie counting, exercise fads and excess weight for 23 years, my husband insisted I try a courtesy treatment from Pat Walker. After the first treatment my hopes were sky high. It works! And there are no strenuous diets and no tiring exercises. It is a very relaxing way of losing. I am now able to wear a size 14 (from a size 20). I still have a few inches and pounds to go and I'll be a size 12. I have a better figure at age 46 than I had at 16.

—Mrs. Doris J. Carpenter, Orange, California

KAILUA - HUSBAND SAYS MONEY WELL SPENT

When my weight reached 165 I was desperate. My husband always objected to my diet efforts because he felt they always made me look haggard and worn out. He tactfully showed me a Pat Walker ad and urged me to go down to the salon instead of undertaking a new diet. After my free demonstration, I was convinced. I have lost 35 pounds and what a difference it makes. From a sometimes too tight size 18 I have come to a size 10, and my husband declares that the money for treatments was well spent. The treatments seem to tone and firm the muscles of both the body and the face. My husband says I look younger!

—Mrs. Thelma E. Bolling, Kailua, Hawaii

GLENDAL - AN INVESTMENT IN BEAUTY

Recently I took a good look at myself and realized that the "few pounds" I had been putting on month after month had suddenly made me a very unattractive and bulging 176 pounds. I finally decided to go to Pat Walker's, because I felt that an investment in beauty is the most important and rewarding investment a woman can make. The luxury of passive exercise with its resultant healthful increased circulation and complete body firming helped me achieve what nothing else in my entire life was able to accomplish. For the first time, I am wearing a size 12 dress, having lost 41 pounds.

—Mrs. Joyce Hood, Glendale, California

HONOLULU - EFFORTLESS REDUCING

The Pat Walker system has taken off seventeen pounds and 25½ inches to date. And in the right places. Additionally, after a busy day in the office, it provides effortless reducing and relaxes my tense muscles. All this and weight and inch loss too!

—Mrs. Marjorie Sterns, Honolulu, Hawaii

High blood pressure treatment

If you have high blood pressure-hypertension to the physician -- you are not alone, says the San Bernardino County Heart Association.

Millions of Americans are afflicted with this disorder, and most of them are getting along well after having consulted with a physician.

Many drugs are available to help him tailor treatment to a patient's needs and condition. Certain prescribed diet changes and rest also are useful.

However, apart from this, there are half dozen general rules that most patients with high blood pressure should follow. Depending on the patient, some will be more important than others, says a leaflet recently issued by the Heart Chapter. The hypertensive individual is urged to ask his doctor which of these is important for him.

Try not to worry. Worry, nervous tension and emotional storms help to push blood pressure higher.

Don't put on excess weight. Overweight is a hazard to health.

Regulate use of tobacco and alcohol as your doctor specifies. Smoking can raise blood pressure; alcohol doesn't, but some people react poorly to it.

Follow a regular pattern of rest stops during the day. Taking time out even before you become tired will help you to avoid the tenseness and irritability (to be avoided by the hypertensive person) that go with fatigue. Get plenty of sleep. During sleep, blood pressure falls to its lowest levels. It rises on waking.

Choose sports that are not competitive. Exercise is good for you. Overexertion can lead to complications. Avoid sports where you can't stop if you become tired.

For more information about high blood pressure, ask the Heart Association for the leaflet "Your Blood Pressure." Call 885-6763 or 888-0391. But remember, it takes two to treat it -- you and your doctor.

Generation gap is USC study

Probing continuities and conflicts between elders and youth, University of Southern California social psychologists are getting the Silent Majority to speak up.
How do dad's social attitudes affect those of his son?
What are the similarities and differences between generations that affect the respective age groups' mental health?
Is the much-touted "gap" between generations a myth or reality?
Those are the sorts of questions being asked by Dr. Vern L. Bengtson and Assoc. Prof. Solomon Kobrin in an extensive, four-year Study of Generations and Mental Health, just begun at USC under auspices of its Gerontology Center.
Unique in its scope and scale, the study will survey the responses of nearly 4,000 persons. The research is made possible through a grant to USC from the National Institute of Mental Health. Funding for the first year will exceed $100,000.
Specifically, the study will investigate the attitudes, goals and values of three generations of the same families — grandparents, parents, and youth between the ages of 15 and 26.

Rowland Unified school trustees approve budget

The Rowland Unified School District board of education unanimously approved a $12,872,877 general fund budget for 1970-71 Thursday night.

The publication budget was built around the current tax rate of $5.41, but according to Donald M. Wickert, assistant superintendent of administration, this does not include the state school building and bond interest and redemption repayments.

"The district has no control over these two areas because the county automatically steps in and sets the tax rates for repayments," Wickert said.

Other budgets approved included building fund, $1,000,000; state school building fund, $350,000; and cafeteria account, $500,000.

The amount for bond interest and redemption is zero. Although the Rowland and La Puente Union High School districts are now unified, according to the bond interest repayment, "the two districts are still operational and will continue to be so until the repayment is complete, which would be approximately 25 years," Wickert stated.

Paul A. Herman, president of the board, replied to an open letter by board member Phil Anderson on a recent survey on salary increases and an area newspaper article concerning the matter.

The survey made by the Cooperative Personnel Services (CPS) of the California State Personnel Board was for consideration for salary raises for six department heads.

Anderson voted "no" on the increases because he felt it was an invalid survey because of administrative interference and districts used were not comparable to Rowland.

He also voiced strong objections to the hiring of Mrs. Anita J. Johnson, who headed the survey of CPS as personnel director for the district several days after the approval of those increases.

In the open letter, Anderson explained his "no" vote by saying, "She authored in part this survey - and was hired away from the Cooperative Personnel Services by none other than the Rowland Unified School District as personnel director."

Herman took issue with Anderson and the newspaper article.

"This job was advertised on a national basis and 124 applications were received. Three objective persons outside of this district were appointed to screen out and bring down this number to six. One dropped out and the remaining five were evaluated by this board. Mrs. Johnson was chosen on the basis of experience and qualifications. I object to the implication of this statement taken out of context."

Anderson offered no reply at that time.

In other action, the board unanimously approved the appointment of Keith E. Crawley as Rincon Intermediate School principal. He was formerly vice principal of Alvarado Intermediate School.

Vice principals approved were Henry Morse, Rincon; Jerry Coker, Alvarado; and William Weirich, Rowland High. Robert Pace was appointed to the federally funded district post of vocational education coordinator. He will operate the compensatory education program; Neighborhood Youth Corps, Triple "O" program (Overtime on Occupation), and work experience program on the high school level.

L. A. County assessment appeals board date set

JAMES S. MIZE, Executive Officer of the Board of Supervisors today reminded Los Angeles County homeowners that the time for filing appeals with the Assessment Appeals Board is from July 20 to September 15.

"The Assessor has notified those property owners whose property has been re-evaluated for 1970," Mize said, "however, if a person did not receive a notice in the mail, then he should check his local newspapers during the week of August 6-12, 1970 or contact the local office of the Assessor to learn the value the Assessor has placed on his property."

County Assessor Philip E. Watson has announced an assessment ratio of 25% in Los Angeles County. That means that the true market value is approximately four times the amount carried on the assessment roll.

"If the property owner feels that the value placed on his property by the Assessor is incorrect, then he should discuss the value with the Assessor and file an appeal with the Assessment Appeals Boards," Mize said.

"Applications for a hearing before the Assessment Appeals Boards will be taken at each regional office of the Assessor and in the County Hall of Administration, 500 West Temple in Los Angeles during the filing period which ends on September 15."

Hearings will be held by three Assessment Appeals Boards beginning September 28 and continuing until all the cases are heard. Each Board has three members and their function is to determine from the evidence presented at the hearing the "full cash."

Balladeers to sing for scholarships

World Balladeers Josef Marais and Miranda will be singing for scholarships in their 21st annual concert at the University of Southern California-Loyola School of Music and the Arts Saturday, July 25.

The celebrated husband and wife, appearing with Carol Merrill, music graduate cum laude of USC, will perform at 8:30 p.m. in Bowman Theater. Admission --$2 for adults and $1 for children 12 and under --will go toward USC-ISO-MATA scholarships. In the past 20 years, the Marais and Miranda appearances have raised some $10,000 for scholarships.

The program of folk songs -- tender, touching, rousing, funny -- will feature many originals by Marais, including "Oh! It's A Mosquito."

Cal Poly 1971 fall sign-ups

With all but a few places for students filled in an anticipated 1970 fall enrollment of 9,000, California State Polytechnic College, Kellogg-Voorhis, Pomona is now making plans for a 1971 fall enrollment of 10,000 students.

Associate Dean of Admissions and Records Richard York and his staff are preparing for the onslaught of paperwork expected when the application period opens November 1, 1970 for admission to fall quarter 1971.

This is two months earlier than the previous fall-quarter application period. The new application date applies to the entire California State College system.

Movie of the week

The Montclair Recreation Department is sponsoring a Walt Disney production, "The Nine Lives of Elfege Baca", as the movie of the week this Friday.

Showing is at 9:30 a.m. at Monte Vista School and 1 p.m. at Vernon Junior High School.

This production is good family fare adapted from a Disney television show. It is purported to be the true story of the man who couldn't be killed. Bound to the law by a silver star, Baca fights death for the law he respects.

A factual story that provides continual action and excitement as Baca blazes a path to justice in a small southwestern town in the early 1880's.

Troop 326

Boy Scout Troop 326 of Montclair had their monthly campout at Sleepy Hollow campground near Wrightwood on June 27 and 28.

Scoutmaster John Walt and asst. Scoutmaster Bob Thompson and Joe Graff had the help of parents Bud Gossow, Jim Cogan, Harold McLaughlin, Howard Thompson, Stan Kovalski and Jim Coyle.

The troop hiked from the campground down to Jackson Lake and also had a backpack hike in preparation for Circle B Camp.

Skills practiced on the campout were signaling and map reading.

Boys attending were: Brian Kovalski, Pat and Mike Thompson, Joe and Paul Graff, Peter Rogers, Jim Coyle, John Sloan, Mark Cogan, George Lamb, Chuck Gossow, Bobby Kvech, Paul McLaughlin, David Mercurio, Scott Slepman, Brian Fleming and David Campbell.

Troop 326 sponsored by ABC Store.
